

E. T. Maloney are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henley, of Richmond. Carl Moulton, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is slowly gaining. John Tarbox, of East Jericho is ill. James Berry, who has been employed on the C. V. railroad, is at home recovering.

ESSEX.

The Ladies' Aid will serve next sugar at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage this evening. Mrs. Pratt, who is at the Panny Allen hospital for treatment, is reported as comfortable.

MILTON.

F. E. Rogers has moved his goods out of the Clark house and shipped them to Swanton. Mrs. Charles Landon will occupy the room vacated by him.

Eden Phelps and Charles King, who spent the winter in Crescent City, Florida, have returned. Mrs. Phelps, who is ill, is at the Panny Allen hospital. Mrs. Phelps, who is ill, is at the Panny Allen hospital. Mrs. Phelps, who is ill, is at the Panny Allen hospital.

WILLISTON.

Mrs. Albert Bliss has returned and opened her house. The schools in town opened for the spring term Monday. The graded school in the village opened this week Monday. The teachers are: Miss Belle Roberts for the grammar department, John Forbes, Intermediate, both of Williston, and Miss Catherine Tierney from Burlington for the primary department. Mrs. Bliss, who is ill, is at the Panny Allen hospital.

MILTON BORO.

The Misses Pearl Hanly and Hazel Everett were guests of Mrs. George Taylor Tuesday. School will begin April 6. The Bellows Free academy students are home for a two weeks' vacation. There was a sugar party at A. B. Wood's Monday evening.

HUNTINGTON CENTER.

The selectmen have appointed Bill Shattuck road commissioner. Mrs. Agnes Brewster will entertain the Home Circle April 8 at the hall. Thomas Gorman, who has been in the employ of V. S. Sargent, has returned to Providence, R. I. Miss Doris Miles is home for the Easter vacation from her school at Essex Junction. Mrs. Mary Miles is visiting her father, Dr. Edmunds, at Bristol. Mrs. Flossie Bennett of Richmond is a guest of her father, W. Moody. Mrs. Flora Hulet has returned from Underhill. Miss Dorothy Ellis of Watfield is visiting her grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Randall, Janus Swinger and nephew, Alon Swinger, went to Boston for the week. Fred Gardner, sergeant in the U. S. army, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gardner, having just arrived from Honolulu.

FRANKLIN COUNTY

ST. ALBANS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Beecher Ponda and Mrs. Oliver Cooke, of St. Albans, will sail April 11 for Genoa, from which point they will take an automobile trip through Europe. The jury in the case of the Unadilla Silo company vs. M. A. Hall & Son returned a verdict for the plaintiff to recover $180, the contract price of the silo. Mrs. George McGowan, aged 80, died yesterday afternoon after a brief illness. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

The death of Loren Pooler occurred at his home on St. Albans Hill Tuesday after a long illness. Mr. Pooler was 71 years old. He is survived by a wife and six children. The funeral will be held at the house this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and the burial will be in the St. Albans Hill cemetery.

The St. Albans Humane society has elected the following officers: President, Rev. H. L. Thornton; vice-president, Rev. S. W. Anthony; Mrs. J. A. Sturtevant, Mrs. E. J. Parmelee of Enosburg Falls and Mrs. C. M. Rounds of Richford; recording secretary, Mrs. Charles A. Oliver; corresponding secretary, the Hon. Fuller C. Smith; treasurer, Major S. H. Wood. The following committees were named: Finance, Miss Clara Dee; entertainment, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Childs and Mrs. W. Gilmore; legislation, Leo S. Tilton; advertising, F. Childs; literary, Mrs. H. Wood and the Rev. S. W. Anthony. Isaac T. Reeman was appointed agent and the Hon. Fuller C. Smith attorney for the society.

RICHFORD.

The Richford Power company has filed with the secretary of state a certificate of incorporation for the purpose of generating and transmitting electric power to the value of $2,000,000 for water power, electric lights, etc. The company's property is located at Stevens Mills, nearly three miles above this village. S. R. Boright is president of the company. The fifth annual banquet of the Women's club will be held at the American house Monday evening, April 6. Club women of Vermont will be guests. Leonard Vincent, who has been studying telegraphy, has passed an examination at St. Albans and been assigned to duty as station agent of the Central Vermont railway at Roxbury. Mr. Vincent has until recently been employed by the Star Grocery company. The condition of Wesley Bliss, who is ill, remains critical. F. H. Kelley and Dr. E. P. Lunderville went to Caledonia Springs for a week's stay. Doctor Lunderville was called home Friday on account of the illness of Mr. Bliss. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Kendall, Harlow J. Conings and Homer H. Westover are in Washington, D. C., for a few days. Mrs. E. L. Bordo of St. Albans Bay is visiting her brother, R. A. Conger. At a meeting in the Baptist church Thursday evening, an unanimous vote was given to extend a call to the Rev. Edward M. Fuller, pastor of the Point St. Charles Baptist Church in Montreal, to become pastor of the Baptist church here. It is understood that Mr. Fuller will accept the call, having recently tendered his resignation as pastor of the Montreal church, effective May 1. The church here has been without a settled pastor since October last, when the Rev. Morgan E. Pease was obliged to give up the work on account of ill health. Mr. Fuller has been pastor of the Baptist Churches in Barre and Manchester and for six years was State secretary of Sunday schools in this State, and also for a time held a similar position in New Hampshire. Lawrence Beaulieu of Newport has bought of Luther W. Jacobs the meat market opposite the park, including the lot, house, meat market, stock in trade and good will, and has taken possession. He will move his family here. Mr. Beaulieu was employed in the Casavant & Mosier meat market in this place some years ago. Mr. Jacobs has moved to his farm in the "Jericho" neighborhood. The funeral of Lewis (Ironhorse) Jones, aged 65 years, who died of pleurisy-empyema last week Tuesday after an illness of only five days was held at his home on the corner of Church and Richard streets Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. W. T. Forsythe officiating. The body was placed in the vault in Hillside cemetery. The deceased was an employe of the Richford Manufacturing company, and the factory was closed during the funeral to allow the employes to attend in a body. He is survived by a wife, three children, a mother, one brother and three sisters.

Mrs. Mary Sweetland, aged 51 years, died of senile decay Monday afternoon. The funeral was held at the home of her nephew, L. D. Davis, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The Rev. D. C. Grant, Rev. W. T. Forsythe officiating. The body was placed in the vault in Hillside cemetery. The deceased was a widow, and was survived by a son, L. D. Davis, of Burlington, one nephew, L. G. Davis, of this place, and one niece, Mrs. G. L. Forbes, of Burlington. The funeral of Thomas Jefferson Davis, aged 75 years, who died Saturday from the effects of blood poisoning which he suffered some years ago, was held at the home in the Hillside neighborhood, Monday afternoon at one o'clock. The Rev. W. O. Hilday officiating, and the body was placed in the vault in Hillside cemetery. The deceased is survived by a wife, two sons, Lucius and Madison, Rev. D. C. Grant, Rev. W. T. Forsythe, and Herman Smith, all of this town. The attendance at the Methodist Sunday school Sunday (the last day of the three months' session) at the Methodist Sunday school of Enosburg Falls, was 30, as against 33 for Enosburg Falls. The latter was the highest attendance of one year.

The Rev. C. C. Adams of Essex Junction preached in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. As the Rev. Dr. S. G. Barnes, of Burlington, who was expected, could not leave on account of the illness of his wife. The condition of Wesley Bliss, who is suffering from blood poisoning, is a little more favorable. The Rev. W. T. Forsythe, of New York, who is ill, is slightly improved. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bean left Monday evening for Portland, Ore., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Frank Ladd, and they may remain several months. They went by the way of Montreal and Winnipeg. James E. Taylor, a Burlington secretary of the Greater Vermont association, will address the Richford board of trade at a meeting to be held in the Calumet club rooms Friday evening at eight o'clock. Mrs. Julia B. Carpenter, long a resident of this village, arrived from Los Angeles, Cal., Tuesday. Col. L. C. Leavens attended the funeral of Col. Z. M. Meaurio at Newport Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Meaurio was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger, who is visiting at the home of Mr. Gilpin's father, W. B. Gilpin, of Westfield for a few days. The literary department of the Women's club will meet with Mrs. C. L. McElholland Monday evening. The subject will be "Flowers and Trees," and the leader, Mrs. A. J. Livingston.

SWANTON.

Henry McGreger, a longtime citizen of Swanton, died March 25 of pneumonia after a brief illness. He was a Civil War veteran, serving in Company I, 7th Vermont. Mr. McGreger was born in Albion 69 years ago. He married Miss Celia Sampson of this place 47 years ago. She survives him. A son, Clark McGreger, is in Colorado and Mrs. McGreger has a daughter, Mrs. James Pierce, died 11 years ago. One of Mr. McGreger's brothers is a brother. The funeral was held Friday afternoon, the Grand Army Post, of which he was a member, attending in a body. Mr. McGreger was highly esteemed in this community.

FAIRFIELD.

Miss Phyllis Soule is spending a few days in Hartford visiting her sister, Mrs. E. J. Montgomery. Miss Helen Soule has returned from the Mary Fletcher hospital, where she underwent a successful operation. Irving Patterson of Cambridge, formerly of this town, is working with his team for G. H. Soule. Miss Frances H. Soule has returned to her school at Burlington. Miss Helen Soule has returned to her school at Burlington. Miss Helen Soule has returned to her school at Burlington. Miss Helen Soule has returned to her school at Burlington.

FAIRFAX.

F. W. Shephardson has returned after several weeks with his brother in Tennessee. Henry Connors, buttermaker at Turnbull's creamery, who was taken ill Friday with appendicitis, was more comfortable Saturday, but Sunday had a more serious attack. Monday evening he was taken to the St. Albans hospital for an operation. He was accompanied by Dr. E. V. Reynolds, the Rev. John Maxwell and A. N. Southard. Earl Shephardson of Hartford, Conn., is visiting his father, H. D. Shephardson, at Huntington. At the special town meeting Monday A. N. Southard and Frank Wood were elected officers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Leach and son spent Sunday in Fletcher. Miss Francis Smith of St. Albans is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Emma Vincent. Carl Smith is confined to the house by illness. Miss Bertina Coventry is spending the Easter vacation at her home in Burlington. Miss Fannie White is visiting in North Cambridge. Harold Goodrich is confined to the house by illness. Miss Amelia Minor-Dudley Road, was seriously injured recently when his hand was caught on a circular saw. A part of one thumb had to be taken off. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Revis and son of Burlington are visiting Mrs. Revis's sister, Mrs. L. E. Melendy.

ENOSBURG FALLS.

Athol R. Bell of the staff of the Barre Times was with his parents over Sunday. Mrs. E. E. Bailey and daughter, Miss Jessie Bailey, of St. Albans were week-end visitors in the home of Mrs. Bailey's sister, Mrs. H. D. Kendall, on Pearl street. Miss Dorothy Farrar has been in Burlington for a few days. Mrs. E. C. Burt leaves today for Haverhill, Mass., where she will spend a few months with her son, Clifford Gardner. W. E. Burt of Burlington was a business visitor in town Saturday.

A. J. Woodward was in town Friday, having recently returned from Hollywood, Cal., where he spent a few months with his brother, Nelson. His son, Roy, remained in California. Mrs. D. A. Bond returned Friday after a few days with her mother, Mrs. St. Germain, who is ill at her home in Richford. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jacobs are spending a few days in Boston. Mrs.

Olth Merrill and daughter, Miss Helen, went to Richford Saturday in company with Mrs. Mary Shattuck of Winnipeg, Manitoba, who was on her return from the burial of her mother, Mrs. Augusta Shattuck, in Hatfield, Mass. She was accompanied by her uncle, Major C. S. Shattuck, of Hatfield, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pomeroy of St. Albans. W. H. Yaw returned Saturday from Hartford, Conn., where he has been for three months in the home of his son, M. B. Yaw. About 15 men visited the sugar place of W. Casavant Saturday afternoon.

The unity class of the Methodist Sunday school had an April-the first social last evening in the church parlors for the class and invited guests. There was a good attendance at the sugar social given by the Rebekahs at their lodge room Monday evening. Roy A. Marvin of St. Albans spent Sunday in the home of his cousin, Mrs. D. M. Rose. At the morning service in the Methodist church he rendered in a very pleasing manner as the offertory a tenor solo, "One Sweetly Solen Thought." Miss Winifred Carpenter returned to her school duties at Bridport Saturday after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Carpenter. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burt returned to their home in Burlington Monday. Mr. Burt is now in possession of the home farm. Lewis Buskey is in charge.

The March just passed has shown no unusual weather features according to the report of the local observer. The mean of daily average reading was 25.8 against a normal for this station of 27.4. The highest reading was 59 on the 26th and the lowest was 19 below zero on the 12th. The greatest daily range was 35 on the 25th, and the least was 10 on the 31st. The rain and melted snow which fell on the 11 days when there was enough to measure produced 1.74 inches of moisture. Of this amount the 20 inches of snowfall produced all but 0.07 inches which fell as rain on the 23rd. There was no snow remaining at the month's close except scattered drifts. The prevailing wind direction was from the northwest. The month was composed of 11 clear, partly cloudy and 19 cloudy days. Miss Dorothy Leavens of Cambridge came Tuesday from Berkshire, where she had been for two weeks, and is staying in the home of her uncle, J. G. Gaines. Mrs. C. D. Green is somewhat improved from a two-weeks' illness. Miss Nellie Whitney of Richford, who is visiting at the home of Mr. Stanley, on Church street. Miss Maria Brady went to Watertown, Mass., with Miss Mary Lyons and will spend a week in that city and Boston. F. H. Eldred returned from California Monday evening after an absence of about two years. Miss Sadie A. Maynard has returned from St. Albans, where she has been recovering from an operation. Mrs. W. E. Porter went to Boston Monday to visit her daughter, Miss Mary Porter, who is in school there. Mr. Edwards of Casnovia, N. Y., representing the Ithaca Concert company of Cornell University, was in town Tuesday and arranged with the men's class of the Methodist Sunday school for a concert by his company next fall.

EAST FAIRFIELD.

Quite an amount of pure new maple sugar has been made by the sugar makers and the season promises to be a good one. John Hale, who has been ill several months at his home, is not considered as well. Mrs. Fogg of Everett, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Merrill. Mrs. Alexander MacDaniels and daughter, Irene, have returned to their home in Westchester. Mrs. Marie Quimby, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burison for a week, has returned to Concord, N. H. Mrs. Maria Mitchell, aged 85 years, who has been ill, is improving in health. Joseph Dudley of Burlington visited in town Tuesday. Leonard and Elma Chase of Swanton are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Chase.

GEORGIA.

Miss Florence Bragg is spending a few days in Sheldon. Miss Helen Curtis and her father are returning to their home this week after four months' stay in St. Albans. The regular Grand meeting will be held Friday evening of this week. Dr. W. H. Wright and C. M. Austin left Monday for a few days in New York city. Some sugar makers made quite a lot of nice syrup from the run the last of the week.

HIGHGATE CENTER.

J. M. Gill of Morse's Line was in town Sunday. J. C. Place spent Monday in St. Albans. Mrs. M. A. Stockwell is ill with acute indigestion. Mrs. Charles P. Skoda, who has been visiting in town, has returned to Milton. J. B. Cross, the veteran "globe trotter," 93 years of age, left Monday for the West. Mr. Cross will spend some time with relatives in Nebraska, Colorado and California and expects to attend the Panama exposition in 1915 before he returns to Vermont. Schools opened Monday after a four weeks' vacation. Miss Gladys Steele has returned from Burlington, where she has been visiting friends. Joseph Lambert, Jr., of Fairfield was in town over Sunday. George Y. Best of Somerville, Mass., has been visiting in town.

FRANKLIN.

Poster Whitney, Miss Edith Gates and Emerson Shedd of the University of Vermont were spending their Easter vacation at their homes here. Mrs. J. R. Anderson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Adams, in Essex Junction. Mrs. R. J. Gates and daughter are visiting her mother, Mrs. C. S. Warner, in St. Albans. Ray Whitney, the newly appointed postmaster, was to have taken over the office April 1, but on account of illness the change is temporarily postponed. Miss Ella Randall has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Dimon, on Highgate Gore. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manley are parents of a daughter, born March 31.

BERKSHIRE.

Miss Lillian Welch of Springfield, Mass., is passing a week with her mother, Mrs. Curtis Shedd. J. E. Kinney went to Montreal Monday to consult a specialist. Dr. C. A. Johnson accompanied him. Harold C. Tyler has returned to his school at Newport Center. Dorothy Leavens, who has been visiting at the home of George Demar, has returned to Cambridge. The Dorcas society met with Mrs. L. Frances Jolley Wednesday. The schools in town open Monday, April 6.

EAST BERKSHIRE.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Richards March 25. Mrs. A. P. Pond and Mrs. O. S. Moffat visited Miss Carrie Hobbs at Montgomery Center Wednesday. Miss Eldora Hodges of Burlington is spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Button. Miss Jessie Sapley of Enosburg Falls spent the week-end with Miss Frances Conings. Miss Jessie Hart of Enosburg is visiting Miss Jennie Stevens. J. M. Robb of Richford was in town Tuesday. Mrs. G. F. Marcy returned home Tuesday from Burlington, where she has been for several days. Mrs. A. P. Pond is spending a few days in Richford. Miss Gladys Laroche, who is attending school in St. Albans, is passing her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laroche, Jr.

FLETCHER.

Farmers have made only a small quantity of sugar thus far. Mrs. Randall is ill. Mrs. L. Richards is ill. Mrs. L. Parsons is ill. Joseph Gomo of Cloverdale is spending several days at the home of his son, O. H. Gomo.

BAKERSFIELD.

The Misses Anna and Bertha Donnelly of Burlington were guests of Miss Dolly Beals over Sunday. Miss Gertrude Brady and Miss Cynthia Dore of Barre are spending the spring vacation at their homes.

BEAVER.

Miss Elizabeth King came from her school at Burlington Monday. Howard Leach has finished work on the farm and gone to work for the Cow Testing society at Glover.

MONTGOMERY CENTER.

Harrison Foster received serious injuries to one hand in the splitter at Hutchinson Tuesday. He went to the Mary Fletcher hospital for treatment. E. A. Wright was in Franklin this week. A. A. Rogers has gone to Island Pond to reside for the present. The revival meetings are continuing at the Baptist church. Mrs. A. L. Dix has been ill.

ENOSBURG.

The thank-offering meeting will be held in connection with the ladies' home missionary meeting at the Congregational parsonage April 10 at 2 p. m. Mrs. E. S. Vradenburg will be the leader. (London Simonds) on three angles quite badly on the pipe to the boiler while getting steam at C. D. Spear's mill. Charlotte Vradenburg and Hazel Stevens are at home for the Easter vacation from Enosburg Falls school. Leonard Reed has a slight attack of appendicitis.

HILL WEST.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuehn of Montgomery Center are visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Rushford. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rushford of Eden have been visiting at B. D. Rushford's. Eli Baker is working for W. P. Shaughran during the sugar season.

GRAND ISLE COUNTY

ISLE LA MOTTE.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker and children of Moore, N. Y., have rented the S. Drown farm. W. H. Naylor has bought the Calvin Hill place of Andrew Holcombe. He takes possession next week. Mrs. Lou Thomas is selling her household goods and is to live at S. S. Pike's for the present. Fred Jarvis is moving to the St. Albans farm, which he bought last fall. Fred Jarvis has moved back to Glenford Dodge's for the summer. Mrs. Ella Hodges of Burlington was in town Friday night to furnish music for the dance. Miss Beulah Dods of Johnson is at home for the Easter vacation. There will be special Palm Sunday service at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning. Miss Navin Way, Howard and Mrs. Tudhope are at home for the Easter vacation. The Rev. George L. Story is seen to erect a bungalow on his lot at the "Cary." Glenford Dodge has placed a new piano in the town hall. Master Ned M. Way was operated on at the Mary Fletcher hospital Tuesday for adenoids. The Rev. G. W. Turner will hold services at the church Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. There will be special music in the evening. Dr. W. H. Wright and C. M. Austin left Monday for a few days in New York city. Some sugar makers made quite a lot of nice syrup from the run the last of the week.

NORTH HERO.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Beecher Dods today for supper. Miss Eva Tudhope is at home from Swanton for two weeks. Delbert McMahon, who has been attending a business college in Burlington, has returned to Glenford Dodge's for the summer. Mrs. Ella Hodges of Burlington was in town Friday night to furnish music for the dance. Miss Beulah Dods of Johnson is at home for the Easter vacation. There will be special Palm Sunday service at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning. Miss Navin Way, Howard and Mrs. Tudhope are at home for the Easter vacation. The Rev. George L. Story is seen to erect a bungalow on his lot at the "Cary." Glenford Dodge has placed a new piano in the town hall. Master Ned M. Way was operated on at the Mary Fletcher hospital Tuesday for adenoids. The Rev. G. W. Turner will hold services at the church Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. There will be special music in the evening. Dr. W. H. Wright and C. M. Austin left Monday for a few days in New York city. Some sugar makers made quite a lot of nice syrup from the run the last of the week.

STOWE.

About $16 was taken in at the repetition of "Crabtree Corners" Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Wilsey have returned after spending several weeks with his sister in Brattleboro, N. Y. The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. J. S. Allen this afternoon for supper. Mrs. J. S. Allen is able to be out after her recent illness. Mrs. Stuart Samson is quite ill. Miss Mildred Parot is a little more comfortable. Robins have made their appearance in this vicinity this week. Mrs. Gracia Tomlinson and granddaughter, Miss Mildred Warren, are visiting in Montpelier. Mrs. L. E. Sallies, who has been ill, is able to be out again. The condition of Mrs. Mary Tudhope, who has typhoid fever, remains about the same. Mrs. Aaron Cheesman has returned from a visit with Mr. Cheesman's brother in Ellenville, N. Y. Little David and Nelson Aubrey are ill with hard colds. Mrs. Aubrey Darby, who has been confined to the house with the grip, is much improved. Levi Johnson of Chittenden visited friends in town Sunday. Mrs. George Collins of Albion Springs died Wednesday. Miss Ruth Jamieson of Burlington is the guest of Miss Anna Salzer. Mildred Hazen is very ill with influenza. Mrs. E. E. Wiggins, who has been staying for three weeks with her father, G. M. Mott, who is quite ill, returned to Burlington Sunday evening with Mr. Wiggins. Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart are moving into the lower front tenement of the Vanine house that has recently been repaired by M. S. Thomas.

ALBURG.

Stanley Blair, the 12 years' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blair of Albion Springs, died at 6:20 a. m. Tuesday. James Blair, who has been recently ill with pneumonia, is much improved. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Cheesman have returned from a visit with Mr. Cheesman's brother in Ellenville, N. Y. Little David and Nelson Aubrey are ill with hard colds. Mrs. Aubrey Darby, who has been confined to the house with the grip, is much improved. Levi Johnson of Chittenden visited friends in town Sunday. Mrs. George Collins of Albion Springs died Wednesday. Miss Ruth Jamieson of Burlington is the guest of Miss Anna Salzer. Mildred Hazen is very ill with influenza. Mrs. E. E. Wiggins, who has been staying for three weeks with her father, G. M. Mott, who is quite ill, returned to Burlington Sunday evening with Mr. Wiggins. Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart are moving into the lower front tenement of the Vanine house that has recently been repaired by M. S. Thomas.

STOWE.

Principal R. G. Reynolds, who spent vacation weeks in Boston and Cambridge, returned Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds, who met him in Burlington Friday. Miss Bernice Towne of the Castleton normal school arrived Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Towne. Miss Bernice Parker returned Saturday from Burlington, where she spent the week. Others who returned Saturday were R. L. Chaffee from Enosburg, Miss Madeline Boardman from Burlington, Douglas and Dorothy Barrows from St. Albans. Mrs. E. T. Houston and daughter, Doris, of Waterbury were in Stowe over Sunday. Munn Boardman returned Saturday from Waterbury. Sugar makers have had a good run of sap. The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church met at the vestry Wednesday afternoon.

STOWE.

Principal R. G. Reynolds, who spent vacation weeks in Boston and Cambridge, returned Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds, who met him in Burlington Friday. Miss Bernice Towne of the Castleton normal school arrived Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Towne. Miss Bernice Parker returned Saturday from Burlington, where she spent the week. Others who returned Saturday were R. L. Chaffee from Enosburg, Miss Madeline Boardman from Burlington, Douglas and Dorothy Barrows from St. Albans. Mrs. E. T. Houston and daughter, Doris, of Waterbury were in Stowe over Sunday. Munn Boardman returned Saturday from Waterbury. Sugar makers have had a good run of sap. The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church met at the vestry Wednesday afternoon.

ernoon to superintend the remodeling of the church. Mrs. Forrest Wilkins has returned from a visit in Waterbury. Mrs. Charles Hamel and daughter, Hazel, of Waterbury were recent visitors at Walter Shepard's.

Warnings have been posted for a special town meeting at one o'clock April 9 to fill vacancies on the board of aldermen and the office of constable and to see if the town will vote to pay the aldermen $2 a day and 50 cents extra when using a team. The ladies of Unity church will serve their usual monthly dinner at the church vestry today. The ladies of the Congregational church will serve supper at their vestry from five o'clock Friday afternoon and new sugar will be served from four o'clock until 7:30. At the regular meeting of the H. H. Smith Post, Women's Relief Corps, Saturday afternoon lunch will be served. Every member is urged to be present. The regular meeting of the post will be held at the same time. Mrs. Laura Barnham will be serving at the sugar social on Sunset street and broke her left wrist. Her head struck the side of the house, breaking her glasses and cutting a gash over one eye. Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Mills and little daughter of Essex Junction are visiting in Stowe. Mrs. G. F. Beecher of Woonsocket, R. I., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Rosamond Macutehoun. Miss Natalie French, who underwent an operation for appendicitis five weeks ago, was able to resume her studies in the Stowe high school Monday. She is making her home with Mrs. Cella Hawley for the present, to be near school. At the regular meeting of Mansfield Mountain Grange Saturday evening the third and fourth degrees were conferred upon the Rev. Lemuel Davis and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Bull. A New England day program was carried out, in charge of the Rev. Mrs. Maude Campbell, and included papers upon the past history of agriculture in New England by G. W. Chapin, his present condition by Mrs. Carrie P. Straw, and future prospects by E. N. Houston, songs by the choir and a duet, "New England," by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chapin. Mrs. Whitcomb has returned to Barre after visiting her mother, Mrs. O. F. Gorry.

The school directors have assigned teachers to their regular schools as follows: Pucker street, Miss Mary Moody; West Hill, Miss Mary Moody; North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as a farm hand in this vicinity for several years, was brought to the town farm Sunday afternoon in a bad condition and soon after expired while sitting in a chair. He was about 85 years old. The cause of his death was heart disease. The remains were taken Tuesday to the home of his former home in West Hill, Miss Mary Moody. North Hollow, Miss Bernice Lang; South Hollow, Miss Lena Wilder of Morrisville; Mills, Miss Maude Clayton. The Moscow, West Branch, Stowe Forks and Edison Hill schools are still unopened. The North Hollow school will open April 6. Others will open April 12. Miss McMahon and son took in about 250 gallons of syrup Monday and are filling some special orders. The quality of the maple is excellent. C. L. McMahon has purchased Mrs. Volney C. Babcock's residence at West branch for a prospective customer. Fred Russell, who has worked as